Membership Benefits of the Middle Tennessee Fly Fishers

Monthly Meetings with programs directed to fly fishing, fly tying techniques, and experience from seasoned veterans to help every member become better anglers.

Newsletter emailed to you each month. It contains information on local fishing, regional fishing reports, upcoming meetings, speakers, outings and club information with loads of photos.

Classes are offered throughout the year for both beginners and experienced anglers in fly fishing and fly tying.

Monthly Outings to some of the South's most beautiful and productive waters. The outings offer many excellent opportunities to fish and learn from fellow members. All outings are open to the entire family and guests.

Annual Banquet with catered dining and silent auctions and live auctions for top name fly fishing equipment.

Conservation Projects planned with state agencies to protect, preserve and clean up our streams and rivers for future generations of fly fishers. Donations are accepted for the conservation projects.

Club Library of books and videos on all phases of fly fishing and fly tying. The library is periodically updated with new resources.

MTFF Web Site mtff.org and Facebook page facebook.com/mtff.org with recent information on fishing, events, fly tying, photos, and local resources.
